

SCIENCE INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS

"UQ is one of the prestigious Group of Eight universities in Australia."

With a well-known reputation in the area of applied science, UQ has world class teaching staff and facilities."

Xueyan Yang

Bachelor of Science
(Biomedical Science)

2016 UQ Science International
Scholarship recipient

Available for outstanding international students enrolling in undergraduate or postgraduate coursework science programs at The University of Queensland.

Scholarship details

The University of Queensland offers a number of scholarships for high achieving international students who can demonstrate their potential to contribute to science.

Full degree scholarships

Award value: AU$10,000

Available for students enrolling in their first year of a full degree undergraduate or postgraduate coursework science program.

Advanced standing scholarships

Award value: AU$3,000

Available for students enrolling in an undergraduate or postgraduate coursework science program with advanced standing (credit articulation), for example on the basis of previous study at a Polytechnic.

Eligibility

- Applicants must be classified as international students in Australia
- Student must have an unconditional offer for a Faculty of Science program at UQ

Application deadlines

- 15 January (5:00pm AEST) for a Semester 1 (February) commencement
- 1 June (5:00pm AEST) for a Semester 2 (July) commencement

For more information, the full selection criteria and how to apply, visit science.uq.edu.au/international-scholarships.

Enquiries

E: science.engagement@uq.edu.au