Faculty of Science Employability Framework

Professional literacy
- Developing disciplinary skills, practices and knowledge
- Communicating and interacting with other people
- Using digital technologies for work and learning

Occupational literacy
- Aligning your career options with your personal values and interests
- Innovating and changing
- Tolerating ambiguity

Operational literacy
- Solving problems
- Making informed decisions
- Managing goals, tasks and deadlines
- Developing project plans

Emotional literacy
- Recognising, understanding and managing how you feel
- Being aware of other people’s feelings
- Helping other people and using your people skills
- Being resilient

Personal & critical literacy
- Being responsible for your personal development and learning
- Putting theory into practice
- Believing in yourself and your abilities

Ethical, cultural & social literacy
- Behaving ethically and responsibly
- Taking responsibility for your actions
- Being a global citizen
- Being culturally aware

Adapted from Literacies for Life by Professor Dawn Bennett (2017) (https://developingemployability.edu.au/about/)